THE BRYANT MEMORIAL VASE.—The vase presented in New York, Tuesday night, to he venerable poet, William Cullen Bryant, by a large number of his admirers, is of silver, and is intended to symbolize Mr. Bryant's life. It is a Greek vase entwined with American flowers. The apple branches on it suggest the fruitfulness as well as the beauty of Mr. Bryant's poetry; the eglantine symbolizes poetry; the primrose early youth; the ivy age, and the amaranth immortality. A series of bas reliefs represent the poet as a child looking to Homer as a model, and as a man reclining under trees as a student of nature. A portrait of the poet crowned with a laurel is between the medallions. Above it is a lyre, and below is a printingpress. Another medallion represents the waterfowl, Mr. Bryant's emblem of faith. Indian corn and cotton leaves are entwined around the bottom of the vase. Numerous other allegorical representations cover the vase, and the words " Truth crushed to earth shall rise again" are worked into an orna-

PROPOSALS.

CLERK'S OFFICE OF SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA, RICHMOND, June 10, A. D. 1876. DURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS of an act of the General Assembly of Virginia approved April 30, 1874, entitled an "Act prescribing the manner in which records for the Supreme Court of Appeals shall be printed, and providing for letting the same to contract," and which is as follows—to wit:

of Appeals shall be printed, and providing for letting the same to contract," and which is as follows—to wit:

I. Be it enacted by the General Assembly, That the clerks of the Supreme Court of Appeals at Richmond, Staunton, Winchester, and Wytheville shall, in the month of June, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-four, and annually thereafter in the same month, solicit proposals by advertising in some newspaper published in their respective localities for the printing for one year of such records of courts as may be required under existing laws to be printed for the use of the Supreme Court of Appeals in determining cases of appeal.

II. The said proposals shall state the amount per page of fifteen hundred ems small plea type, and shall include the paper, printing, binding, and a neat cover with the style of the case and the court from which the record comes neatly printed thereon.

III. The said clerks shall award the contracts for said printing to the lowest responsible bidders in their respective localities, and shall take from them bond, with ample security in a penalty double the amount of the work to be executed, the same to be ascertained by the amount of the preceding year's work. The mode of certifying and paying accounts for said printing shall be as now prescribed by law.

IV. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

V. This act shall be in force from its passage.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by the undersigned at his office, at the State court-house, on Eleventh street between Broad and Marshall, in the city of Richmond, until 12 o'clock M. of the 26TH INSTANT, for the PRINTING, &c., in accordance with the provisions of the second section of said act, of all such RECORDS as the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, at Richmond, may require for one year from the 1st day of July, 1876.

As the printing has to be done under the supervision and direction of the clerk, it must be done in this city.

The clerk claims the right of rejecting an vision and direction of the clerk,...

The clerk claims the right of rejecting any and all bids which in his opinion do not and will not fully. comply with the requirements of the foregoing act, and of deciding who are "responsible bidders" and what is "ample security" within the meaning of the same,
